Early Bird Tickets now on sale

Buffalo, Wyoming - Early Bird tickets are now on sale for the July 10, 11 and 12, 2009 Big Horn Mountain Festival. The Early Bird special ticket price of $65 for the entire three-day festival is a savings of nearly 25% over the gate price. The Special will end on January 4, 2009.

"Each year we make this local community special available to those who can go to one of the ticket outlets and purchase their tickets," said Paul Jarvis, one of the organizers of the event. "It's a great way to save some money to see a great lineup of well known, established musicians and some great young talent."

The 2009 Big Horn Mountain festival has scheduled an outstanding lineup of Bluegrass, Old Time, Folk, Western and Cowboy music. Tickets for the festival can be obtained at Buffalo Chamber of Commerce, Joy Appliance and Video, The Sports Lure in Buffalo, The WYO Theater and Java Moon in Sheridan, and Haggerty's Music Works in Gillette.

The Big Horn Mountain Festival will feature 11 bands including The SteelDrivers, The Wiyos, Special Consensus, Steve Smith and Hard Road, Bill Evans and Megan Lynch, Flexigrass, The Jalan Crossland Band, Anne and Pete Sibley, The Long Road Home with Peter Warnick and D. Michael Thomas. The festival also features workshops, contests, demonstrations, instrument raffles, vendors, arts and crafts.

The Big Horn Mountain Festival will begin early Friday afternoon, July 10 and run until late Sunday afternoon, July 12. In addition to the outstanding band performances, festival participants can attend several of the performer's workshops.

The festival will also host Wyoming's Mandolin and Banjo State Championships as well as fiddle and guitar contests. A Band Scramble contest will highlight pickers who want to compete in a fun and lively band contest. Food, refreshment, arts and crafts vendors are also featured. .
